Prepare your Hearts and Minds ...

“So then prepare your hearts and minds for action! Stay alert and fix your hope firmly on the marvelous grace that is coming to you through Jesus Christ.” 1 Peter 1: 13

It's early this season; in fact, the start of Lent on Valentine's Day caught me by total surprise. But here we are in a calendar season that to me is always a really positive way to start new calendar years.

Once the New Year's Eve celebrations are laid to rest and Springtime is in focus for many people, it is time to get closer to God. Truthfully, each day when we wake up breathing and capable of arising from our beds to enter into our world, it is the time to get closer to God. But somehow, we do not make that a priority.

I spoke with someone who was telling me about how hard he worked to get a promotion at work. He said that in his last job he worked extra hours each week and that he took on tasks that no one else at work would do. I asked him about the potential promotion, and he said it would mean about another $100 a week in pay, but then he asked me, "Should I be coming to church or doing anything with God? Is it okay that I don't have time for church?"

Interesting that this young man felt the need to hold that conversation with me. No, he is not someone who we have seen attending church services, although he claims to stream our FACEBOOK from time to time. I wonder how many people we each know who do not have time for worship, prayer, reading Scripture, listening to music of faith, or just retreating away to be with God?

Lent is the season for each of us who call ourselves Christian to examine our schedules and calendars to make more time for God. Our excuse might not be the need to work more to get $100 a week added to our paychecks, but as you examine your schedules do you have enough open time to schedule God in, just as a way of showing God that you actually consider God to be God and that you love God?

Some of us had ashes on our foreheads back on Valentine's Day... a sign of our limited existence. Ashes to ashes, dust to dust. Most of us will show up in church on Easter morning for our 9:30 worship service, and perhaps attend the sunrise service at 6:30am also. I know two church services in one day is an awful lot to ask of any person with a busy calendar, but why not try it?

So this Lenten Season I want you to consider the challenge from the New Testament found in First Peter, "Prepare your hearts and minds for action!" Be prepared as if you knew you were going to be face-to-face with God starting in April and will be asked how you showed your love of God. This time you will be answering God, not some friend or a pastor. What will your answer be?

The season of Lent ... a time to get closer to God so that you remain close throughout the year. Stay alert and be ready to be the light of Christ in the world we live in.

Blessings,

Pastor Dave

Outreach

Happy Spring!

Upcoming Mission Projects & Offerings

- April
  - ◇ Our first Sunday offering (Apr. 7) will go toward our Easter Offering.
  - ◇ Our third Sunday (Apr. 21) will be supporting our Shared Ministries.

Many thanks to all our church family for your continued dedication to our Outreach Projects.

Did You Know?

person a short while before she passed away. We are so lucky to have had such a wonderful Christian woman to be an influence on two generations of our family.

Sharon and Gary Rutter

When our son, Brandon, was two years old, Denise Hosier invited us to attend her Church. She knew we were unchurched at the time and thought St. Paul's would be the perfect place for us. We decided to give it a try, and now, 35 years later we still call St. Paul's home.

When Brandon was in one of his early Sunday School Classes, they made crosses and were instructed to go into church and give the cross to one person there. Brandon went straight to Lillian Quillin, even though he didn't really know her, and gave her his cross, and that was the start of a lifelong friendship between them.

Lillian followed Brandon through school, college, and his singing, even after Brandon moved away, got married and had his daughter, Evelyn. Lillian followed the pictures of Evelyn on Facebook and always had a sweet comment to make. And Brandon searched out Lillian every time he returned home and went to church with us.

We recently lost Lillian, but we were lucky enough to bring Evelyn over to meet Lillian in

Food, Glorious Food!

“Food Glorious food!
We’re anxious to try it. Three banquets a day – our favorite diet.” OLIVER

Yes, the lyrics from the musical OLIVER come to mind when I think of all the delicious varieties of foods we can enjoy. Well, since my heart situation I am more limited than before because I have strict orders to limit ‘table salt,’ but that doesn’t mean I can’t still enjoy food.

At St. Paul’s, we celebrate food by eating with each other on a regular basis, and in the coming weeks we have two very important fund raisers that are directly related to our love of food.

On Palm Sunday please make sure to join us for the “limited seating” (that means buy your tickets early) PALM SUNDAY PANCAKE BREAKFAST. This breakfast will satisfy your hunger pangs AFTER church and put a big smile on your face. In addition, you will be eating with your friends from St. Paul’s! This is just an awesome time to eat together and enjoy each other while using your breakfast moneys to support St. Paul’s rather than your local diner.

The third Sunday of the month is PRETZEL SUNDAY, which raises some money but is just plain fun! Our Megan decided last year to fund PRETZEL SUNDAY when she heard the person who had been paying for the pretzels chose to stop supporting that ministry. Get a bag of pretzels, especially if you are going to watch the Phillies game in the afternoon!

On APRIL 21st we will be having our SPRING CHICKEN BARBECUE. Absolutely delicious food, which you can plan to eat with friends, and an awesome fund raiser for St. Paul’s! Are you telling your friends, your neighbors, your co-workers, and even strangers about our CHICKEN BARBECUES? The money that we raise from the two barbecues is ESSENTIAL to our making our budget each year.

And then there are our SOUP SUNDAYS. The first Sunday of each month you can purchase soup at bargain basement prices from the winner of WMMR’s BEST SOUP in the DELAWARE VALLEY SOUPER BOWL contest! $4 a pint and $7 for two pints. Feed an older neighbor. Share with a neighbor you haven’t gotten to know. Or enjoy it yourself!

Finally, every Friday morning at 9:30am I stream ‘IN THE KITCHEN’ on our FACEBOOK page. Since 2020, I have shared more than 150 recipes that are easy to make on that video stream. So you can get adventurous with food that I enjoy. In March I will be making a couple of Irish dishes for St. Patrick’s Day, and I am probably going to share another dandelion recipe this Spring. You can scroll back to see past recipes, including several Chinese dishes for this year’s Lunar New Year.

And whenever we have a potluck supper it’s always great, because the people of St. Paul’s love being together. When you can eat delicious food and be together, your time is even more well spent!

Pastor Dave

Easter Flowers

We Thank Thee

Celebrate Jesus’ resurrection with beautiful flowers! Each year the Guiding Lights Class sponsors Easter flowers that you can purchase. This year we will have a pickup date or you can leave them to decorate the Sanctuary on Easter Sunday and pick them up afterward.

Lilies, tulips, daffodils, and azaleas are available in the usual colors. Order forms are available on the church website or for pickup at the church. All orders are due March 17 (March 10 to be sure). Money is due by Palm Sunday, March 24.

For flowers that bloom about our feet; For tender grass, so fresh, so sweet;
For song of bird, and hum of bee; For all things fair we hear or see,
Father in heaven, we thank thee!

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

A Job Well Done

the West Deptford schools who are unable to pay their lunch bills.

People who wanted to help had to count the coats, sweaters and jackets in their closet. They gave one dollar for each item, and then thanked God that they had more than one.

In January, Carla Branyan met with the head of the cafeteria, Ms. Nichole Pote, who keeps all the records of the children's bills, and presented her with a check for $600. She was extremely appreciative. As Matt Dechen said, "St. Paul's is amazing." He will go to the board meeting in February to talk a little bit more about St. Paul's and how we help people.

A few months ago, the community relations team started an outreach program to help the children of

Bible Study Wrap-up

The Women's Bible study wrapped up its fall/winter study at the end of January.

We read and studied "Love Stories from the Bible" by Shannon Bream. We had an average attendance of 22 women at each study. We read our chapter at home each week and then held an open discussion about what we had read.

We have learned from each other and learned especially about the women of the Bible. We also hold a time of prayer at the end of our session. It's been great!

At our last session, we all went to Ciconte's for a nice lunch. There were 26 of us at lunch. It was good to just sit down and talk with each other. I would like to thank all the ladies for their devotion to reading and coming out to our study. I love our time together and look forward to our next study.

Many thanks to Gary Rutter who made sure the heat was on for us. We will resume meeting sometime in September with a new book. I will keep you posted on our start date and new book. All the ladies of the church are welcome to join us! We have a great time together! Thank you and God bless the praying women of St. Paul's!

And (right) our Lay Leader Dave Fish absolutely loves waffles with LOTS of whipped cream. The Guiding Lights, open to all the ladies of the church, met for brunch at the Telford in January (below). Any interested ladies, see the president, Bev Betz.

What a pleasure it was to have one of our nonagenarians in church in January. Janet Brown read the scripture for the week on January 14. It was a pleasure to see her, and thanks to her daughter Debbie Richman for bringing her!

Children's Ministry

JONAH AND THE WHALE: The children's messages are always a fun way to learn about the Bible. Dave Fish taught them about Jonah and the whale by putting them in the belly of the whale, complete with the smell [tuna fish in a container]! The kids love the children's messages and they love to sing, too. Be sure to be in church on Easter morning to hear them!

“For I am not ashamed of the Gospel; because it is the power of God that brings salvation to EVERYONE who believes.” Romans 1:16

If you are on FACEBOOK, you have seen the image above after every single posting on your FACEBOOK page, including everything you post. As part of the “social” part of “social media” we are invited to like, comment, or share the messages from our friends or even strangers. It is amazing sometimes how many strangers feel that they have to comment on some of my postings.

The creators of FACEBOOK have made it so easy that those of us with non-technical minds can easily just click on whichever activity we want to engage with and voila, it happens.

Clearly the easiest way to jump into the world of social media might be the LIKE button. Take a FACEBOOK posting featuring Romans chapter 1 verse 6 as an example. If that was posted to a friend’s FACEBOOK page and you were happy to see the verse on FACEBOOK all you need to do is click LIKE, thumbs-up, and the world would know you liked it.

Of course if you want to add your personal insight, you would need to click on COMMENTS. So if this verse was posted on FACEBOOK and you really liked it you could click first on the LIKE button, which would register that you liked it. Then you would have to CLICK on the COMMENTS button, which would open up a “dialogue” space where you can type in your own words reflecting on how you think about the subject. You could type, “I am not ashamed of the Gospel! I am thankful for God’s love through Jesus Christ,” for example.

Now comes another easy button but apparently it is the hardest button for so many people to click on. It’s the SHARE button. People SHARE FACEBOOK posts that they obviously agree and believe in. They want their friends and family to be connected to them through the posting. It might be a video of puppies or kittens. Perhaps it is a story about one of their favorite sports teams or celebrities. Many SHARE stories that their children or grandchildren have posted about their lives. SHARE is just as easy to click on as is LIKE and COMMENT but for some reason it seems to be really difficult to SHARE posts from St. Paul’s United Methodist Church on FACEBOOK.

We stream our Sunday and Wednesday worship services live on FACEBOOK, but they remain on FACEBOOK forever. If you click on the SHARE button, your friends and family on FACEBOOK will be able to watch those services and connect with our church. Almost every morning at 9:30am I stream a live FACEBOOK message of 15 minutes, hit SHARE and everyone sees it. We post messages about the CHICKEN BARBECUE, about the FLUTE ENSEMBLE, and even stream Celebration of Life services. All of these could be reaching so many more people if every member of St. Paul’s merely hit the SHARE button on their FACEBOOK pages.

I would hope all of you have LIKED St. Paul’s FACEBOOK page, but now in this Lenten Season I am asking each of you to sacrifice a little time and effort by boldly SHARING St. Paul’s FACEBOOK messages onto your social media. No need to be embarrassed to share, because we all love this church and I would hope we want more friends and family members to be connected to God, Christ, and if they don’t have a church, with St. Paul’s.

Blessings,

Pastor Dave

BISHOP John Schol was kind enough to record a sermon for all the churches to use in January so the pastors could have a week off. We enjoyed the Bishop’s inspiring message of “Comfort and Joy.”
