Marching in the Light of God

“Camiando en la luz de Dios, camiando en la Luz de Dios”

Yes, I realize that some of you can't read the Spanish verse that comes from our hymnal. That does not lessen the legitimacy of those words, does it? Because those who speak Spanish are just as loved and valued by God as we are. Do the words “Siyahamb' ekukhanyen' kwenkhos, siyahamb' ekukhanyen' kwenkhos” stir up some anger or frustration that causes you to want to get rid of those who speak Zulu from our land? These words are in our hymnal too. I have heard voices raised in anger because some of our fellow citizens' primary language isn't English. But then again, my ancestors' primary language was German ... bet there were folks who wanted to ship them out when they arrived because they didn't fit in. I know my Irish ancestors were subject to violence and hate, even though they spoke English. The hate, at that time stirred up by leaders, including church leaders, was directed at Roman Catholics. Italians were really harassed when they came here in great numbers too.

On Wednesday February 25th I worshiped and then marched with more than 2000 United Methodist clergy and laity in Washington DC. We came to our nation's capitol to declare that we choose to follow God's directives regarding individuals who are strangers in our land. We choose to stand against the imprisonment and terrorizing of children. We stand against transitioning warehouses into barbed wire prison enclosures to hold and imprison families who came to the United States seeking a better life, with the owners of the warehouses receiving millions of dollars in tax breaks in return. Many of these families have followed all the legal procedures to seek asylum, and some even have green cards, but our government has arrested them—some even as they left the courts as they followed our laws.

It was a powerful day of worship led by Bishop LaTrelle Miller Easterling of the Baltimore-Washington and Peninsula-Delaware Area, who preached from Psalm 24. “The earth is the Lord's,” she said, quoting Psalm 24:1. “It all belongs to God. ALL,” she emphasized. The bishop said that the current system of injustice is “antithetical to the will of God.”

It was an impressive day! Jon and Bonnie Tangent, who are part of our Wednesday Night Bible Study even though they live in North Jersey, travelled to share in our gathering, and many members of our church watched online while praying for all of us. In the afternoon we met with Congressional and Senate representatives.

So the Spanish and Zulu verses from our hymnal... They are the same as the English words, which more than 2000 of us sang on the 25th as we left the Capitol United Methodist Church to head into the streets of DC following the call of the Lord God to the prophet Micah, “He has told you, human one, what is good and what the LORD requires from you: TO DO JUSTICE and EMBRACE FAITHFUL LOVE FOR ALL PEOPLE.” We sang together, ‘We are marching in the Light of God; We are marching in the Light of God.’”

That is the choice humans have to make, regardless of their nationality, their race, the color of their skin, their language, or any other factor that some use to discriminate and hate against. Will we march in the light of God or in the darkness of the world? It is the season of Lent ... Easter is coming ... it's time we all get right with God.

Blessings,

Pastor Dave

Outreach

Happy Spring!

Upcoming Mission Projects & Offerings

- March
  - ◇ Our first Sunday offering (Mar. 1) will benefit UMCOR Sunday, formerly One Great House of Sharing.
  - ◇ On the third Sunday (Mar. 15) the offering is for Red Bird Mission.

UMCOR, the United Methodist Committee on Relief, is there to help with disasters anywhere in the world.

Red Bird Mission is an outreach to one of the poorest counties in the country. Our missionaries travel to Kentucky one week each year to help the community by doing projects for the people.

- April
  - ◇ Our first Sunday offering (Apr. 5) is for our Easter Offering.
  - ◇ Our third Sunday (Apr. 19) is for Justice for Our Neighbors.

Justice for Our Neighbors is a community-run multifaith collaborative that supports and defends the rights of immigrants by providing immigration legal services and educational resources.

Many thanks to all our church family for your continued dedication to our Outreach Projects.

HAPPY NEW YEAR: There is nothing like worshipping together to start the New Year. It was a service of prayer, song, and reflection, with the blessing of Holy Communion to help us begin the New Year with the Lord.

Seeking the Lord During Lent

“You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.”
Jeremiah 29:13

Lent has arrived, and it is so much more than a season of giving up chocolate. Actually, during my lifetime it has seemed that the conversational connection to Lent has always revolved around conversations on “what are you giving up” for Lent. I have rarely if ever overheard conversations with the faithful discussing how they are getting closer to God, which is the actual call to the faithful, beginning with the receiving of ashes.

Our opening slides for worship since Lent began have been chosen as an encouragement for all of you to renew your faith. Martin Luther’s statement, “Faith is a living and daring confidence in God’s grace” is very Wesleyan in thought, but a challenge for all of us to willingly make our faith and God a priority. On the first Sunday of March, I shared a quote from Rev. Timothy Keller, author of ‘The Reason for God,’ which has been very influential in my faith life and personal growth. The quote I shared is reflective of a constant message that I have been sharing with our church on Sunday mornings, “the key to continual and deeper spiritual renewal and revival is the continual RE-DISCOVERY of the GOSPEL.”

Keller emphasizes our need to focus in on the Gospel. To read and reread the words of Jesus Christ, if ... if we want to live lives connected with God. In his writing, he is concerned with individuals who initially find themselves in a setting in which they consider themselves to be Christians, but then they keep the name while succumbing to the world. I share those same concerns.

Keller writes, “If Jesus rose from the dead, then you have to accept all that he said; if he didn’t rise from the dead, then why worry about any of what he said? The issue on which everything hangs is not whether or not you like his teaching, but whether or not he rose from the dead.” So, if like me you believe in the grace of God verified on Easter morning when Jesus rose from the dead, then you should sense a personal need to read the Gospels over and over again.

In the Lenten season we connect with other churches to offer a Lenten Lunch series to connect us with the Gospels and to enjoy lunch with the faithful from other churches. It is an easy first step for each of us, but we need to be willing to get in our cars on a Wednesday and drive to a church for lunch. On March 4th it will be Woodbury Heights Presbyterian Church, on March 11th it will be

First United Methodist Church in Mantua, on March 18th Holy Nativity Lutheran Church in Wenonah, and on March 25th we host our neighbors.

I’d love to have you join me for lunch and discovery of God’s Word each week during Lent. I hope in your private moments that you are rediscovering the teaching of Jesus Christ, not as a Lenten Sacrifice but as a Lenten step of faith because you, like me, truly wants to get closer to God.

One more Keller quote to ponder, “God’s salvation does not come in response to a changed life. A changed life comes in response to the salvation, offered as a free gift.” May this Lenten season change your life because you sacrificed enough of your time to get closer to God, and may God change your life because you chose to get closer.

SOUP SUNDAY

1st Sunday of the month

Next Soup Sunday:

No Soup in April.

Order online or by calling or seeing Mary Ann Jones.

Thanks to Ish at the PISTON Diner for the delicious soup!

It's the Invitational Season!

"Come all you who are thirsty,
come to the waters!"
Isaiah 55:1

My grandson has figured out how to FACETIME from his tablet, and it is so wonderful to see his smiling face when I least expect it. Out of nowhere that FACETIME music starts and since I don't FACETIME with anyone else, I know it will be DAXXY. I also know that he will be INVITING me to play an online game with him on my tablet.

It's so cool to receive his invitations, even though I really have no idea of how to play those games on Roblox and Minecraft. It feels good to be invited always by friends and family!

I am sure that you have family and friends who would love to receive invitations from you to do something together. I just happen to believe we are in the midst of the very best invitational season of the year! New Year's Eve seems like it was a year ago, Valentine's Day flew by rather quickly, and Shrove Tuesday may have been busy unless you turned it into a Mardi Gras festival.

But looking ahead at our church calendar, there are lots of dates coming up where your friends and family would definitely be welcome. It begins with church services every Sunday mornings at 9:30am followed by free snacks and coffee. Pretty cool deal, right?

For early risers, you can invite them to Holy Communion with you at 7am on Wednesday mornings. Admittedly the "food" is not substantial but it's a great midweek escape from the world and you can go out to breakfast afterwards.

Speaking of breakfast, the male members and friends of St. Paul's get together for an 8am breakfast at The Piston Diner in Westville on the first Saturday of every month and on the third Wednesday. A really special, bargain-priced breakfast will be held at St. Paul's on Palm Sunday, March 29, immediately after all the palm waving during our church services, which is quite fun and worshipful too!

And speaking of Palm Sunday, the Gloucester County Flute Ensemble will be holding their Spring Concert on Palm Sunday (March 29th) afternoon at 4pm and it is FREE of CHARGE and perfect for the kids!! We should be able to pack the house with family and friends!

Palm Sunday kicks off Holy Week with services at St. Paul's on Wednesday morning at 7am, Thursday evening at 7pm (Maundy Thursday), and at 7pm on Good Friday. Easter Morning (April 5th) we have a SUNRISE SERVICE at the Red Bank Battlefield Park at 6:30am and Easter services at St. Paul's at 9:30. If you have been inviting your friends and family all along, by this time they will want to become members of our church!

And don't forget the Lenten Lunches on Wednesdays! Every Wednesday at 11:30am!

Our church is welcoming and loving. We love to laugh, we find joy in worshiping God and Christ, and we are good at caring for each other. Be sure to share our posts on social media and start making a list of who you can invite—because we are in the INVITATIONAL SEASON!

Blessings,

Pastor Dave

GUIDING LIGHTS met at the Rutter home and enjoyed delicious treats made by Sharon. These ladies are hard workers and are involved in all areas of our church ministry. All ladies of the church are welcome to join the group. See Bev Betz for information.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

HELPERS: Shown are just a few of those that help during worship by singing (and marching!), reading scripture, greeting, and helping behind the scenes. We are so lucky to have a church full of servants.

SUPER BOWL STROMBOLI SALE: Many thanks to everyone that ordered stromboli from our Community Relations Team (CRT) led by Mary Ann Jones. We didn't sell quite as many as last year, but Liscio's gave us an extra discount so we could still make some good money. And as always, the stromboli was delicious!

GUEST MUSICIAN: The choir welcomed Bela's friend George Rabbai and his trumpet on February 8th and they made beautiful music together! Thanks, Bela, for bringing in your talented friends, and thanks, choir, for always being willing to go along. George is very talented and we had a super service that Sunday!

Easter Flowers

Celebrate Jesus' resurrection with beautiful flowers! Each year the Guiding Lights Class sponsors Easter flowers that you can purchase. This year we will have a pickup date or you can leave them to decorate the Sanctuary on Easter Sunday and pick them up afterward.

Lilies, tulips, daffodils, and azaleas are available in the usual colors. Order forms are available on the church website or for pickup at the church. All orders are due March 22. Money is due by Palm Sunday, March 29.

We Thank Thee

For flowers that bloom
about our feet;
For tender grass, so fresh, so sweet;
For song of bird, and hum of bee;
For all things fair we hear or see,
Father in heaven, we thank thee!

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

Children's Ministry

CHILDRENS' MESSAGES are given each week by Dave Fish, and they are always meaningful and educational for the kids. One recent Sunday Dave talked to the kids about "letting your light shine for Jesus." He demonstrated that with two lanterns-first without batteries and then with batteries to make the light shine. "Plug into Jesus!" he said.

Lenten Lunch and Learn Series

Please join us for our Lenten Lunch and Learn Series this year, taking place every Wednesday during Lent. We will be studying "The Last Four Things," Advent in Lent.

- 2/25 Introduction at Holy Trinity (Wenonah)
- 3/4 Death/Hope at the Presbyterian Church of Woodbury Heights
- 3/11 Judgment/Peace at Mantua UMC
- 3/18 Hell/Love at Holy Nativity Lutheran in Wenonah
- 3/25 Heaven/Joy at St. Paul's, here

Our sessions run from 11:30am to 1pm, and lunch is provided.

We will need your help on March 25 when we host. We will be looking for a couple people to serve, along with donations of soup and sandwiches. If you can help see MJ Minder, Carla Branyan or Pastor Dave.

The Good Friday Worship Service will be at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Wenonah, Friday, April 3 beginning at 11 am. It will be a 'Lessons and Carols' style service.

We hope everyone will join us!

Thank you for your donations!

Together we have helped a Philadelphia program for the homeless, raised some money for our ministry, and PACKED THE TRUCK and EMPTIED Hickman Hall!!! SO AWESOME!

We dealt with a change in plans but in less than an hour we packed a large truck with your donations and sent it on the way to Philadelphia. We will know later how much money we raised. Thanks for everyone who adjusted their schedules to help on February 27th: Jim C., Jim V. (who took the photo above), Elaine L., Peggy P., and Pastor Dave.

LEADERSHIP TEAM met on Zoom in January, and we were very happy to report that the church met its expenses for 2025 with a little left over! Thanks for all your donations! God bless these dedicated volunteers!
